Area Will Get No United Crusade Help

Faced by opposition from leaders of the Joint Boy Scout-Girl Scout Fund Drive in this area to previously announced United Crusade plans, General Manager Ralph T. Shaw of the United Crusade in the East Bay has instructed Crusade workers:

1. — To inform people from this area who work in the East Bay that Central Contra Costa agencies are not included in the United Crusade.

2. — To inform people from this area that they will be solicited at home by the home agencies, such as the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

SHAW'S STATEMENT to United Crusade workers is:

"We have been advised by the leadership in the Central Contra Costa County area (Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek) that they do not wish to participate in the distribution of campaign results as outlined in our memorandum of September 8, which reached you a few days ago. The leadership of the Central Contra Costa County area desires instead to contact their people at home.

"If you are asked by any of our prospects regarding the territory covered by the United Crusade, will you please advise them that the agencies in the Central Contra Costa County area are not included in the United Crusade, and as a result, solicitation will be made in Central Contra Costa County for support of the agencies located in that area."

EARLIER, in a letter to Victor Lindblad, scout executive of the Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council, Shaw stated:

"This is to advise you that contributions made to the East Bay United Crusade at the source of employment must provide immunization for further solicitation only by those causes included in the United Crusade and within the territory covered by the East Bay United Fund."

THESE DEVELOPMENTS resulted from local scout drive leaders' rejection of an "offer" by Shaw that the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Red Cross here would share in the United Crusade contributions by Central Contra Costa working in the East Bay, to the ratio of $60,000 to $2,800.00. This would have meant that about 1 1/2 cents out of each dollar would go to the scout groups and 1/2 cent to the Red Cross.

Local area scout leaders estimated that the most that would accrue to the scout organizations here in this way would be $1400. Since United Crusade workers had been instructed to tell Contra Costans that they would be immune from further solicitation, it was emphasized by the local leaders that the entire scout fund here would be jeopardized. Scout leaders had not been consulted.

EDMUND BARNETT, chairman of the Mt. Diablo Red Cross Chapter and president of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, also stressed the need to "give at home." He said this week:

"After last week's SUN appeared, with the article and the editorial on United Crusade, I asked Charles Howard of Walnut Creek, chairman of the United Crusade in Oakland, about the matter. He said that the Red Cross chapter here and other Central Contra Costa County agencies would not receive any United Crusade funds. Apparently, Shaw had made the allocation announcement on his own."

"All the operating funds of our Red Cross chapter are derived solely from our own regular drive in March. We are operating on a $21,000 budget. That is expended almost exclusively for the needs of our community. So if $600 were all we would realize, through United Crusade allocations, it would jeopardize the chapter work and the chapter would be placed in a very difficult and embarrassing situation."

"AS FOR THE MT. Diablo Therapy Center, the annual fund drive for which is now on, it's entirely local."

"It's not participating in United Crusade or in the Community Chest of Concord. The center can't be self-supporting on its own operating income. We have to look to the work of the various auxiliaries and to our annual fund drive."

Salfigere, Spiegl, Roemer Elected in Landslide Vote in Record Turnout

ERNEST J. SPIEGL

Polling Places 'Burst at Seams' On Election Day

There wasn't any doubt that Monday was election day for the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District. The record number of voters who turned out to cast their ballots for three directors made that evident. And some of the polling places figuratively "burst at the seams" with the large number of voters.

At Precinct 1 polling place, the fire house on Oak Park Boulevard, 45 citizens from the Pleasant Hill, Vine Hill and Pacheco areas turned out. At 6 p. m. cars were parked for a couple of blocks in the vicinity of the station, and people were lined up for about 100 yards outside the station. It was estimated by some observers that between 200 and 300 persons, tired of waiting for their turn, went home without voting.

ABOUT 6:30, Colonel H. M. Smith, Sanitary Board secretary, dropped by, looked the situation over and announced that when 7 o'clock (closing time) rolled around, only those people inside the polling place would be allowed to vote.

Candidate Frank W. Salfigere got in touch with Chief Guy Spencer of the Walnut Creek Fire Department and asked if the fire equipment couldn't be moved outside, so that more people could vote. The chief said it could — and the equipment went outside, and voters went inside.

At 6:50, 719 had voted there since the 7 a. m. opening. At 7 the doors were closed. The voting wasn't completed until a couple of minutes before 8 o'clock.

VETERANS MEMORIAL Building in Lafayette (Precinct 4) and Harold's Real Estate office in Orinda (Precinct 5) were also scenes of large crowds and of voting for long periods after the 7 p. m. closing, by those citizens who had arrived before 7.

Encephalitis Takes First Life in County

Although encephalitis (sleeping sickness) victims in Orinda and Lafayette are coming along "as can be expected," the first death from the disease was reported in Contra Costa County this week, according to Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer.

The death, reported as a person in Pittsburg, has now brought the total to 43 throughout California's Central Valley.

ACCORDING TO Dr. Arthur C. Hollister, chief of the Bureau of Acute Communicable Disease of the State Board of Public Health, 577 cases have been officially reported since July 1 and another 59 cases are suspected for a complete total of 636 cases. In 1950, only 419 cases had been reported.

During the Board of Supervisors meeting next week, the boundaries of three proposed new mosquito abatement districts will be discussed. The three proposed districts include the Concord, Briones and Richmond areas.

AT PRESENT, Lafayette, Orinda, and a good part of Walnut Creek are included in Mosquito Abatement District No. 1, according to Ernest Campbell, manager of this district. Only Moraga and a section west of Pleasant Hill near Walnut Creek are not included in Mosquito Abatement District No. 1, Campbell said.

Two Involved in Traffic Accident

Two persons from Orinda were involved in a rear-end crash on La Noria near Camino Sobrante at 8:55 a. m. last Saturday, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Laura Lamborn, 21, of 20 La Noria was driving one vehicle while James L. O'Connor, 21 of La Noria was at the wheel of the other car. No one was injured in the accident, according to the Highway Patrol.

The largest turnout of voters in an election of the district overwhelmingly elected Frank W. Salfigere, Ernest Spiegl and Irving C. Roemer to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board of Directors Monday.

Each of the three victorious candidates netted well over a third of the total number of ballots cast, 3632. Unofficial returns gave Salfigere 2551 votes, Spiegl 2547 and Roemer 2424.

Next came Vance W. Perry with 877; Colonel Francis J. Clune, 871; Harold W. Toland, 472; R. E. Wadsworth, 470; David L. Rockwell, 289; Gilbert F. DeBorja, 257.

Estimated number of registered voters in the district is over 20,000. Of the 3632 ballots cast, 16 were reported invalid.

(See other stories.)

Toland and Wadsworth had served on the board since its inception and sought reelection. Perry was named by the board several weeks ago to complete the brief remainder of the term of Colonel H. M. Smith, who resigned as director but who is still board secretary.

SALFIGERE, Spiegl and Roemer were backed by a coalition of leaders of various improvement associations throughout the area. They were recommended by the SUN last week on the grounds that "a change of administration of the Sanitary District is essential."

Key issue in the heated campaign was the controversial garbage franchise ordinance and the method in which the old board passed it. Toland and Wadsworth favored the ordinance, while the other candidates were against it or against the methods used in passing it.

INTEREST in the election mounted in intensity over the weekend preceding election day. Sound trucks toured Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Orinda on behalf of Toland and Wadsworth.

Winning Candidates Issue Statements—See first page of Second Section.

broadcasting the message, "There's no substitute for experience." Cards were sent in the mail on behalf of the incumbents with the message, "Keep the Sanitary District sanitary."

Volunteer workers for Salfigere, Spiegl and Roemer kept telephone lines humming in a "get-out-the-vote" drive. Transportation to the polls was provided for those who needed it by Butler Automobile Company and by various individuals.

AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN was also waged by Clune, who had the support of the Parkmead Improvement Association and the board of the Saranap Improvement Association. Clune's campaign manager was John A. Wagner.

Ballots were scheduled to be officially canvassed last night by the old board at the district office at 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

FIRST MEETING of the new board will be next Monday night, when a meeting is scheduled for 8 p. m. on the 27th at the district office in Improvement District 27, along Overhill Road in Orinda.

According to the district's attorney, John A. Nejedly, the board secretary, following canvass of the ballots by the old board, sends the successful candidates their certificates of election, and they will be sworn in not later than Monday evening, preceding the meeting.

Salfigere is in the engineer's office at Camp Stoneman, is chairman of the Gregory Gardens Water District Board and has been vice-president of the Gregory Gardens Improvement Association and on the Advisory Board of the County Flood Control District in the Gregory Gardens area.

Spiegl, an attorney, has long been active in the Orinda Association and in other Orinda community activities.

Roemer, a patent attorney in San Francisco, is president of the Happy Valley Improvement Association in Lafayette and is a member of the board of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

Pictured here is Barbara Stark, Olympic swim star from Orinda, as she smilingly accepts the invitation to be honorary grand marshal of the Festival parade from Barney Gilbert, parade chairman. On the right is Barbara's mother, Mrs. R. A. Stark. The parade, one of the highlights of the annual event, will get under way at 1 p. m. Sunday, the final day of the walnut harvest celebration.

Civic Affairs Eyes 'Urban Unincorporation'

Incorporation once again cropped up as a subject of discussion at Monday night's meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association at Orinda School.

Vice-Chairman Ramsay Underwood presiding in the absence of Chairman Clinton Hallsted, reported that the September 10 public meeting on the subject in Lafayette, under auspices of the Lafayette Improvement Association, had discussed the Corro report on possible Lafayette incorporation costs, takes no action and decided to be vigilant on developments regarding the "urban unincorporated" proposal.

THAT PROPOSAL is now in interim committee status, and is due to come up in some form in next year's State Legislature.

"I'll call Harold Furst, president of the Lafayette Improvement Association and chairman of that group's incorporation study committee, and see what he knows about it," Underwood said. "If it seems likely that action will come soon, then I think the committee we are setting up to study the incorporation could work with them."

GENERAL DISCUSSION of the perspectives for that and other proposed standing committees took up a good part of the meeting. The suggested committees are to be acted upon by the association board, which meets next Monday night.

Harold Rote, slated to be beautification committee chairman, mentioned a Lincoln Estates billboard in a vacant lot next to Orinda Hardware. It was agreed that Rote would inquire as to what could be done about it.

Also mentioned was the proposal previously made for a "Meet the Candidates" Night late this month or early in October. However, there was apparently no progress toward such a public gathering, Underwood reported.

C of C Plans Tunnel Signs

Installation of signs reminding motorists to turn off their lights as they leave the Broadway Tunnel was discussed during yesterday's meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at Casa Orinda.

Dr. Edwin McCord, a chamber director, brought this idea before the group.

ANDY BLALOCK was assigned to contact the AAA for information as to procedure necessary to secure permission to install the signs.

Mrs. Arline Harold, another director, suggested having news racks placed on the bus-waiting shelter at the Crossroads.

FOLLOWING DISCUSSION, it was decided to take steps to accomplish this.

Jack Clark assumed his duties as director. He was named to this position following the resignation of Don Bradley, who resigned from the board at the previous meeting because of "pressing business."

Civic Affairs Members Discuss Garbage Ordinance

The controversial garbage franchise ordinance of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District came in for general discussion at the meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

However, a detailed discussion, previously scheduled for the meeting, was not held. Reason: Vice-Chairman Ramsay Underwood reported that Chairman Clinton Hallsted had told him he had had the impression the Sanitary District election was next Monday instead of last Monday.

This mistake and Hallsted's absence from the meeting were accepted good-naturedly by the 11 delegates present when Underwood, who conducted the gathering, explained that Hallsted's wife had given birth to a boy — their third child — the week before.

"Clint figured he'd better stay home and help his wife," Underwood said.

Since Secretary McKinley was absent, Underwood acted as secretary as well as chairman. The meeting was held at Orinda School.

JOSEPH D. deCOSTA of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association asked for "enlightenment" on the opposition to the garbage franchise ordinance. "I don't know of any other sanitary district or municipality that doesn't have either its own system or a franchise arrangement," he said.

"I'm in favor of the ordinance, too," observed Underwood. "It's one of 15 different means considered by the Sanitary District Board for revenue."

Harold Rote of the Moraga Del Rey Community Association stated that the issue was not the ordinance itself, but the method used by the board in passing it, "without the knowledge of the constituents."

Horace Breed of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation and the Encinas De Moraga Homes Association suggested that the garbage franchise ordinance be discussed at next month's meeting.

IT WAS POINTED OUT by Underwood that a public hearing on the garbage ordinance is scheduled for next Monday, and that a new Sanitary Board takes office next Monday night.

It was decided that if the subject is still timely, a discussion will be held at the October 20 meeting. Mentioned as possible speakers were some representatives from the City of Concord, where garbage collection franchising is in effect, and John A. Nejedly, attorney for the Sanitary District.

Small Grass Fire Reported Here

Only one fire occurred in Orinda during the past week, according to Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt.

This was a grass fire on Honey Hill Road Wednesday. No damage was reported.

A false alarm was also turned in Wednesday when someone thought they had spotted smoke coming from behind Orinda School, Wyatt said.

Head-On Crash Reported Here

A head-on side-swipe accident was reported on Orinda Highway near Camino Sobrante Monday at 11 a. m. according to the California Highway Patrol.

Involved in the accident were Vivian McCormick, 40, of 23 Giorietta Court, Orinda; Robert Ferrell, 19, of 240 Victory Lane, Concord; and Alma Gunn, 24, of Hayward.

There were no injuries reported, according to the Highway Patrol.

Fire District Tax Rate Is Reduced Nearly 9 Cents

Tax rate for the Orinda County Fire Protection District is down almost nine cents from last year, it was announced this week by Secretary Zach Montgomery of the Board of Fire Commissioners.

Previously, an estimated reduction of about seven cents had been anticipated by Montgomery, but the actual rate for the fiscal year which began July 1 is $1.003 per $100 assessed valuation, as against $1.09 for 1951-52.

This means a drop of $1.087 in the tax rate.

Montgomery pointed out that this reduction was achieved despite the fact that all firemen have been given a five per cent salary increase and despite the addition of Fire Station No. 2 at Orchard Road and Moraga Highway.

WHEN THE FIRE BOARD meets in monthly session next Thursday night at Fire Station No. 1 on Avenida De Orinda in the Village, it will have before it the two bids for construction of a carport for Fire Station No. 2 and the approval of the County Board of Supervisors of one of the bids.

The bid approved by the supervisors is that of Highland Construction Company of Walnut Creek, for $2720. The other bid was from Romley Construction Company of Walnut Creek for $3769.

Decision on which bid to accept will be made by the fire board. Montgomery said, and actual awarding of the contract will be by the supervisors. The Highland Construction Company bid will probably be accepted Thursday night, he added. The fire board meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

REORGANIZATION of the fire board was effected recently. Gilbert Earle is president, succeeding Warren Harrold, and Montgomery is secretary. Harrold is in charge of grounds and beautification; Bert Dawson, of operation and maintenance; and Harry Oakley, budget and finance.

President Earle handles insurance problems for the board, and Secretary Montgomery is in charge of public relations.

Old Man Weather, Football Just Don't Get Along

Maybe it's because the football season gets underway this weekend that Orinda weather has received such a "kicking-around" during the past week.

In the week from Thursday, September 11 through yesterday, thermometers rose and fell . . . much like the hopes of many a college routing section will during the next few weeks.

On Sunday, a touch-down was scored by old man weather as thermometers hit 95 degrees. However, Mr. Weatherman was thrown for a loss Saturday when a chill of 44 degrees was reported.

Not a single sign of rain was reported in this area during the past week.

Pease Injured In Highway Crash

Paul C. Pease of 31 Ardilla Road was injured in an accident at the Crossroads Tuesday at 8 p. m., according to the California Highway Patrol.

Also involved in the crash was Willibald Wachmann, 48, of 1800 21st Street, Oakland. The accident, according to the Highway Patrol, was a right angle, broadside crash.

Pease was rushed to Merritt Hospital in Oakland, where he underwent an x-ray, it was discovered he had received a concussion. He is expected to remain in the hospital for several days yet.

Dr. Carl Smith of 61 Moraga Highway has been treating Pease. Pease is a sergeant in the Sheriff's Reserve Civil Defense group in Orinda. He is also district governor of the National Electric Construction Association and is president of that group's Contra Costa branch.

Karaberies Talks To Rotary Club

Constantine A. Karaberies, associated with the Alameda Naval Air Station, spoke to members of the Orinda Rotary Club during their luncheon-meeting Wednesday at the Willows.

Karaberies graduated from the Naval War College in 1935. Jim Wasley served as program chairman.

Park Pool Square Dance Canceled

The square dance planned for the Orinda Park Pool tonight has been cancelled.

Caller Frank Olsen is doing some work at his ranch and will not be available.

Group Named To Pick C of C Winning Slogan

A three-man committee to select the winning slogan in the contest sponsored by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce was appointed at yesterday's meeting of the chamber at Casa Orinda.

Ramsay Underwood heads the committee, which also includes Andy Blalock and Bill Worden. Twenty-one slogans were entered in the contest, which closed at midnight Wednesday. The slogans were to describe Orinda in seven words or less.

"A number of the slogans were entered on the coupons printed in the SUN last week," Director Merle Brown, chamber publicity chairman, reported.

The winning slogan will be placed on the membership plaque of each chamber member.

Ernest Kump Named Architect For Orinda H.S.

Following an intensive survey of current architectural trends and services in school construction, highlighted by visits to numerous types of school plans, the Alameda Board of Trustees this week announced the employment of Ernest Kump of San Francisco as architect for the new school to be erected in Orinda.

Kump has served as architect for both Alacanes and Las Lomas High Schools.

According to school officials, a site use plan is now being drafted. Grading on the new site is expected to start next year, with construction on initial school facilities slated to begin in 1954.

The new high school is expected to be ready for use in 1955. The 52-acre site is on the west side of Moraga Highway, about three miles south of Orinda Crossroads.

Record Enrollment In Schools Here

A record number of youngsters have enrolled in the Orinda School District for the fall term, according to Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

Exact figures reveal that 1460 pupils are now in the Orinda School District. When classes ended in June, approximately 1240 students were enrolled.

Total enrollment figures include: Giorietta School, 613; Orinda School, 847.

First week of the new term went along just fine, according to Sheaff, with new teachers, new students and everyone else "getting along swell."

Scout Troop 207 Opens Its Season

The 1952-53 scouting season for Boy Scout Troop 207 was officially opened on September 9 with a regular troop meeting at the Orinda Scout Hut under the supervision of Scoutmaster Cullen and Assistant Scoutmaster Thurston.

Feature of the evening was a modern Paul Bunyan picture in sound and color which was educational and made available through Berkeley headquarters.

Meetings this season will be, as usual, at the Scout Hut every Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

The September program, determined at the last Green Bar meeting, was scheduled as follows:

September 13—All day hike from Scout Hut to Camp Hampton and return, via Shale Mountain.

September 16—Board of Review. September 23—Court of Honor.

September 27—Paper drive for Guide Dog Fund.

The Orinda Scout Hut committee expresses its appreciation to members of Troop 207 and their parents who participated in the summer cleanup and painting program at the Scout Hut.

All of Orinda will be canvassed in the paper drive and it will be appreciated if all papers are securely tied so as to facilitate pickup.

Nursery School OK'd by Planners

Adrienne Decker's application for a permit to operate a nursery school at her home in Orinda Park Terrace received favorable recommendation by the County Planning Commission Tuesday night.

The commission specified that operation of the school be limited to herself, and that the school could not be run by anyone who might later purchase the property from her.

The nursery school is to be for pre-school youngsters, not to exceed 15 in number. The residence fronts about 114 feet on the south side of South Trail, approximately 680 feet west of Mariposa Lane.

But Law Requires Another Hearing; Set for October 30

Acting contrary to the recommendation of the officer who conducted the hearing in Martinez last month, the State Board of Equalization yesterday afternoon in Sacramento denied issuance of an on-sale general liquor license to Rick's Drive Inn.

The unanimous action of the board was on motion of James H. Quinn, District 2 board member, and on recommendation of State Liquor Administrator Ed Clark.

A hearing on the application was set for October 30 before the board in Sacramento. Quinn said later that this session will probably start about 10:30 a. m. Final decision will be made by the board that day, he added.

DENIAL OF the license now doesn't mean the end of the case, unless the applicants withdraw their application," Quinn explained to the SUN yesterday. "Under the Administrative Code of Procedure, when we go contrary to the recommendation of the hearing officer, the matter automatically must go to a hearing before the board itself."

If the board upholds the hearing officer's recommendation, the protestants can appeal for a hearing before the board. But when the board acts contrary to the hearing officer's recommendation, a hearing before the board is mandatory."

IVORES R. DAINS, the hearing officer who conducted the August 26 hearing in Martinez, was not present at yesterday's board session, but his recommendation that the license be issued was on hand. In his recommendation, Dains did not sustain the many objections who claimed the proposed bar, planned as a separate structure-back of the drive inn, would be too close to Alacanes High School.

Clark, however, reviewed the entire case and recommended that the board deny the license. Then Quinn made his motion, and the board acted.

Both Clark and Quinn pointed out that the 1900-foot distance from Alacanes to Rick's would be one thing in a city, where many businesses

'Victory for the People' — Bohn

"I feel that the State Board of Equalization did the right thing, and that its action constitutes a victory for the people," Attorney John A. Bohn said late yesterday of the denial of a liquor license to Rick's Drive Inn.

"I'm very happy at the decision," continued the man who volunteered his services as legal counsel for the objectors. "It shows that the Board of Equalization is cognizant of the wishes of the people of this area and of the dangers to the high school youth if a license were granted."

"I want to express my gratification on the attitude and action of the board. The people's confidence in the board has been vindicated."

About our happy Country Folks

By JEAN and BEACH DEAN
Guest Columnists

RAN INTO GREG ENGELHARD a week or so ago. He is assistant athletic director at Cal and he has lived here in Orinda for the past year. He was a happy man on this particular day — happy in the knowledge that he was gratifying many of his fellow Orindans and several thousands of others in giving them a chance to watch their idol, Les Richter (now of the U. S. Army, as you know) in action once again on the home grounds at Berkeley.

It seems that the commanding general at Camp Pendleton called rather late in the scheduling of games to cancel the Pendleton-Cal Rambler game for tomorrow. Greg was planted at the phone trying to rearrange the schedule when in came a call to him from Camp Cooke with Les Richter on the wire. Would the Cal Ramblers be at all interested in a game with Cooke?

He, Les, had been put in charge of athletics there and had cooked up (pun) shades of Edith Bolman, a football team, on which he himself would play. Tomorrow was the only date open for Cooke — could Cal do it?

Well, just ask Greg — or read your daily newspaper. See you there, folks!

A ROUSING DAY OF WATER SPORTS was held at the Orinda Country Club on September 6 — day of the races for members and children. Dickie Stark — yes, Barbara's young brother — upheld the family honor, winning first place in his age group.

Also winning a first at the races was Phil Chapman, who was to be married that evening at 7. The bridegroom-to-be was very calm about it all 'til one of his pals, at the pool-side, called, "Hey Phil, you gonna wear your medal tonight?"

We nominate for lady sportswoman of the year, Janey York, who with a single shot got her deer, up at the Dick Weeks' ranch, where she and Lyle visited recently. She says she has now "batted a thousand and will never try again." In other words her first shot will be her last.

Neighbor Betty Smith is very red in the face — says she has been trying for many a season with no luck. Betty and Ritchie enjoy a lot of hunting at their cabin, "Pandemonium," near Red Bluff, and we hasten to add that Ritchie has upheld the good old name of Smith by bagging two!

BETTY SMITH WAS ABOUT TO DESCRIBE a chuck wagon party put on by old-timers in the area when Ritchie burst in on the telephone to tell us of the social event of the year, which is also a great bargain. His words, mind you. He is referring to the $100 dinner coming up next Tuesday. It is put on by the County Republican Finance Committee, is countywide, but the quota for Orinda alone is 100 couples, at $110 each. The bargain part of this deal is that wifey is invited, and the cost of her dinner is only $10.

He says response has been terrific, so hurry, if you want tickets, to the following gentlemen: George Hauerken, Steve Jensen, Ken Morrish, Dwight Chapman, Jack Bottomley, Jack Gompertz, Paul Ammen, Ron Schacht, Joe Creighton, Woody Lamb and Ritchie Smith.

These Orinda couples have made arrangements to attend (at this writing): the Buchters, the Flegers, Clarence and Williams, the Selbys, Federighis, Shapiros, Bottomleys, Deans, Bruners, Murphys, Mordys, Meakins, Pointings, Sharps, Dodges, Bartletts, Lairs, Will Morrisches, Gentrys, Jacobuses, Colvins, Folliards, McGaws, Longs, Boysens, Spights, Stoffels, Elkingtons, C. Browns, St. Hills, Boieses, Hockenbeams, Soules, Dotens, plus all of the aforementioned ticket-sellers.

DORIS AND WALLY MARSH have returned from three weeks in Hawaii. They spent a week at Hana-Mau, which Doris says was the most restful seven days she has spent in several years. She is a typical Orinda mother, who spends her days and some of her evenings carting Penny and Wally Jr. — the two young Marshes — and their friends, in her little red Ford convertible, to and from school doings and scout doings. The little red Ford is never seen hereabouts without seven or eight of the younger set overflowing its limited capacity.

Doris works at the school library each Thursday and can be found in the kitchen running the food dispensing at "most any Girl Scout or Boy Scout dinner."

After the well-earned rest, which both enjoyed at Hana (we quickly add that Papa Marsh is also slightly busy during the balance of the year) the Marshes viewed the Hale Mau Mau volcano, which is putting on its fascinating act. We did not realize that the crater is 123 acres in extent — with two centers of violently erupting lava. Beautiful at night, with the black crater veined in red fiery streaks and intermittently throwing the crimson lava 250 feet into the air.

The Ted Becketts entertained at cocktails at their place at Tahoe Pines over Labor Day. Among local people enjoying their hospitality were the Oliver Meeks, the Milton Selbys, their daughter and her husband, the Fred Goodwins and Stanley Davies. All present oh'd and ah'd over the gorgeous living room decorations, the mantle piled high with greens, in the center of which reposed a golden statue of a woman golfer. Base of the trophy was inscribed, "Tahoe City Golf Tournament 1952 Ladies Low Net."

Yes, Kay was that proud of being Champ of the local links. Our intrepid golfer was completely cowed, however, a few nights later when a noise at the back of the house drew her out of doors to find a black cub bear up-ended in the Beckett garbage can. She slammed the door and fled.

The Swansons of Sleepy Hollow — Hal and Al — have recently returned from three months on Cape Cod. Al, the Mrs. of this combination, drove both ways with the four young Swansons. Hal going later, and driving a new car back from Flint.

JIM AND MILTON SELBY had a final fling in Chicago before Jim's sea duty begins November 1. Father was there on business and Jim was there for fun. The plane was to come in at Chicago at 4 p.m. but arrived at 8. Jim was fresh for the activities but Milton was slightly wilted. However, they saw some shows and baseball games and it was a wonderful time for father and son before Jim takes off under Uncle Sam's care.

Some of you have fond memories of dancing to Tom Coakley's Band at the Palace Hotel in the 30's and later to Carl Ravazza's music at the St. Francis. Carl Schwedhelm, who has our Orinda Pet Shop, which most of us know well because of Rover's great oppette, played bass viol in both bands.

He is now operating his shop by day and playing with various bands at night. He can be seen and heard on TV each Monday with Jay Grill's Show.

The Flegers — Bill, Kay, Ann and Sally — covered over 4,000 miles of European territory in five and a half weeks this summer. This feat was accomplished in a little Hillman-Minx with a luggage rack on top, which Bill loaded and unloaded each day.

It broke down only occasionally, but when it did it caused some consternation as mechanics over there knock off in the middle of the job come 12 noon and do not reappear until 2 p.m.

The Flegers saw a great deal of Europe in the Minx — stayed in Paris for three weeks and later visited the sister of Mrs. Nat Dodge of Orinda, near Sylchester, England, in her attractive farmhouse, with thatched roof and lovely English garden.

Oak Springs Home Group Maps Plans

Monthly meeting of the Oaks Springs Home Association was held at the club house September 8.

Due to the tremendous number of applications received so far for pool membership during the 1953 season, it was resolved to again enroll as many members as were enrolled in the 1952 season. Acceptable 1952 members will be given preference over new applicants, and enrollments will start immediately after January 1, 1953. Early enrollment will give those applicants who cannot be accommodated time to seek swimming privileges elsewhere.

It is expected to have the clubhouse completed by the opening of the swimming season, and its facilities will be accorded to both the regular resident members and associate members, according to President E. F. Crider.

A parking lot is to be constructed across the road from the pool, and will be available on opening day.

Many improvements in swimming facilities are anticipated.

Picnic Set for New St. Stephen Land
Planned to show the new church property in a festive mood, the all-membership picnic will be held by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Saturday, September 27, from 3 p.m. until sundown.
The property, on Honey Hill off Charles Hill Road, has been recently purchased as a building site for the first Episcopal church in this area. Comprising seven acres, the land possesses numerous giant oak trees, and a wandering brook.
AS A WELCOME to Rev. Charles N. Hill and his family, and in response to requests of the members of St. Stephen's who have expressed a desire to see the property in its entirety, the picnic was contrived as an opportunity for all interested persons to offer suggestions regarding the building plan designed by Arnold and Francis Constable.
The exterior perspective drawings were on display before and after the church service two Sundays ago, for the express purpose of inviting opinion of the congregation. Those attending are asked to drive into the property through the Honey Hill Road entrance, where parking space will be available. The picnic itself will be held under the oak trees on the promontory formed by the stream, the site of the future outdoor shrine.
MEMBERS ARE ASKED to bring their own lunches in old-fashioned family picnic tradition. Tables will be set up for comfort and convenience. Soft drinks, ice cream and coffee will be available on the premises. Games have been planned for the youngsters, and all members will have the fullest opportunity to get acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Hill and their children.
Call is out for volunteers to assist with the picnic preparations. Those willing to help should contact Captain Eugene Pillsbury and Clinton Easterbrook.

Acapulco's New Name: Lusiani's

Remodeling of the interior of the old Acapulco on Mt. Diablo Boulevard is well along, according to Al Mortara, owner of the property and building. Reopening, under the name of Lusiani's, is set for next Friday, September 26.

With family and local trade the main goal, the revamped spot will feature Italian dinners, specializing in home-made ravioli. The restaurant portion will be managed by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lusiani of Oakland and their sons, Dick and Don. The cocktail lounge will be run by Mortara.

Dick, who recently moved to Contra Costa County, and Don will play in the four-piece orchestra which will perform at Lusiani's. Dick plays the clarinet and saxophone, and has been with Jack Flinn, Ted Weems and other name bands. Don plays the accordion and the piano.

Canyon Callings . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caselmuvio, married on August 30, have returned from a honeymoon spent in Yosemite and Los Angeles, and will now reside in San Francisco.

The bride is the former Lorraine Reiter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Reiter of Canyon. The groom, a native of San Francisco, graduated from St. Mary's where he was student body president and is at present continuing law studies at U. C.

Former residents who have returned to Canyon are the Ray Jacobs family and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Elliot and Jim Jr. Mrs. Elliot is the former Nadine Bierman.

ALTHOUGH MANY houses are gone forever from Canyon's steep hillsides, summer months have seen many families take up residence in our little community. New names heard are Day, Kies, Timmons, Johnson, Mead, Wilder, Guffey, Calkins and Mass.

Rita Miller, 6, and Kathy Honaker, 5, escaped serious injury when a creek bridge rail gave way, sending them tumbling into the water below. Rita still had a black eye and bruises when she appeared for her first day at school. Kathy suffered only bruises.

Little Randy Wells has had the cast removed from his broken arm—the result of a fall from a swing.

A BAD BACK INJURY has caused Chalmers Luckhart in Peralta Hospital. The injury has forced his resignation as a member of the Moraga-Canyon Volunteer Fire Department.

Mr. and Mrs. George Menges are on a deer hunting trip — destination unknown.

CANYON-MORAGA CUB PACK 57 committee meeting was held last week at the home of Don Mother Barbara Kock in Moraga. Assistant Cubmaster Gregory Kazar of Moraga will take over pack duties during the absence of Cubmaster Norman Kock, who will be in New York until November.

Paul Foster, Scoutmaster of Troop 212, which is composed of Canyon and Moraga boys, is seeking a man to replace his as scoutmaster. After serving three years as scoutmaster here, he has gone on to district scout work: vice - chairman of Diablo Council and a member of the executive board and is also at present

Month-Long Fund Drive Begins for Therapy Center

A month-long fund drive on behalf of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center got under way Monday.

President of the Center, Edmund S. Barnett, said: "Each year the community is asked to support this organization that does so much for the physically handicapped of this area."

YEAR AFTER YEAR, hundreds of polio, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis and industrial accident cases are treated at the Center. It is estimated that since the first of this year the Center has saved industry 6000 man hours of labor by returning workers to their jobs faster. In doing this, wage earners have taken home $10,000 in earnings that would have been lost if treatment had not been received at the Center.

Barnett continued: "This year the number of polio cases in this county has shown a sharp increase which will be reflected in Contra Costa County."

Each of these cases will require special treatment. Physical and occupational therapy is an integral part of this special treatment and is available at the Therapy Center.

HOWEVER, this therapy is expensive and the Center must necessarily rely upon the community for help. Without community support the Center could not exist and victims of polio would have to travel to Oakland for treatment or go without.

Retaining physically handicapped people to do a job and earn their livelihood is also another important program at the Center. A physical handicap may mean a whole new life for a person, but by teaching new vocations the physically handicapped person can continue to support himself and his family and lead a normal life.

When you consider that the Therapy Center is a local project directed to your physically handicapped neighbor, it deserves your wholehearted support," Barnett pointed out. "The Center is run by people in this community, so give generously to this worthy cause."

County Orders Park Survey

Two developments occurred during the past week regarding a county-wide park and recreation survey by the county, for which the Board of Supervisors recently appropriated $8500:

1. — The supervisors on Tuesday passed a resolution instructing the County Planning Commission to undertake such a survey, in cooperation with various public bodies and boards, particularly the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, and to select a consultant to aid in the work.

2. — The Planning Commission met last Friday night with representatives of the Park Council to discuss the project. The matter of a consultant was discussed, but, according to County Planning Technician Tom Heaton, no one was agreed upon.

"We're anxious to get going on this survey before the rainy season starts," Heaton said. Representatives were led by chairman Alvin Burton and George Cardinet.

Truck Accident Showers Peaches On Crossroads

Nearly 20 tons of canned peaches showered on the Orinda Crossroads September 11, as a huge truck and trailer, bakes not holding, threatened its way through a gas station and around a safety island to avoid hitting stopped cars.

John Moniz, 20, of 1933 86th Avenue, Oakland, was driving the truck when the brakes failed as he neared the Crossroads. Moniz swerved to the right in order to avoid hitting the stopped autos, went through the Associated service station, around a safety island, and continued on up Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

When the huge truck passed the safety island, the trailer struck the concrete rise and jack-knifed, dumping the load of peaches on the parked autos in front of the Casa Orinda.

The autos belonged to Gordon Moynahan of 3700 Mosswood Drive, Lafayette; Eugene Schmitt of 9 Las Vegas, Orinda, and Frank Rose of Club Diablo, Walnut Creek.

Almost seconds after the accident, according to Highway Patrolman John Connolly, dozens of motorists and passers-by had collected at the scene of the accident to gather up the thousands of cans of peaches.

The Orinda Fire Department was called to wash down the highway, and county road equipment cleared away the peach cans that the public wasn't able to get.

Jewish Holiday Services Set

The National Jewish Welfare Board has made arrangements for religious worship of the High Holy Days for the Armed Forces stationed at Camp Stoneman, and the civilian population is invited to attend.

Reservations should be made by telephone, contacting Martin Rothenberg of Pittsburg, Pittsburg 2-7244, or Harry Vodian, Concord 8191, local representatives of the Jewish Welfare Board.

Chaplain Meyer Goldman of the U. S. Army will officiate. Services will be held in Chapel 1, and will begin at 7:30 tonight and will be resumed at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow and Sunday.

The Kol Nidre services for Yom Kippur will be at 7 p. m. Sunday, September 28 and will be resumed the following morning at 9:30.

A break-the-fast buffet will be served at sunset, through the cooperation of the Jewish Welfare Board.

Airwatch Site Search Here Is Stymied Again

Because of troubles with the Danville Air Spotter headquarters, nothing new in the way of finding a location for a site in this area has as yet been done, according to George Burton, assistant director of the county civil defense program.

A spotter station which has been in operation in Danville for several months may have to be moved from its present spot. Because the Danville post is organized and has been in action all county civil defense sources are making an attempt to secure a new site for its headquarters.

"AS SOON AS this is done," Burton said, "we'll start work in the Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda area."

Possible sites investigated in this area have so far included an old cement building on top of Election Mountain, a spot near Planters Dock and a building on the Lutheran Church parking lot in Walnut Creek.

Although there is not an active headquarters in this area, persons interested may still volunteer.

PERSONS MAY GIVE their names to attendants at the Walnut Creek fire house anytime between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or at the Lafayette fire house anytime during the day.

Real estate men in this area will also take the names of volunteers.

Others who will help new volunteers are Commander M. Blaine Delleshe, post supervisor for this area, who may be contacted at Drake 6-8852; Mrs. William Gordon at Orinda 8852, or Mrs. F. R. Devin at Drake 6-8697.

I'm Gratified At Results' - Harold Furst

"I'm gratified at the results of Monday's election, and have full confidence that the new board members will help restore the Sanitary District board to a high level of efficiency," Harold Furst commented after the election results were announced.

Speaking as an individual and not as president of the Lafayette Improvement Association, Furst continued:

"I believe we should give thanks to: First, the three victorious candidates for letting community leaders throughout the area talk them into running; second, to the many people who took part in the campaign; third, to the strong support of the Sanitary District board and Orinda, and finally to the voters in the area who were able to find time to get to the polls and express their preference."

Hearing Tuesday On New Setup for County Planners

Second and final public hearing on proposed reorganization of the County Planning Commission is set for next Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., in Room 21 of the Hall of Records in Martinez.

As outlined by Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker, the proposal is for a "revolving committee," consisting of two Planning Commission members and one ex-officio member, to meet weekly to consider land use permits. This committee would have jurisdiction over all matters involving merely modifications of zoning requirements, with appeal allowed to the full commission.

Under such a system, land use permits would not go to the Board of Supervisors, as they do now.

This setup, it is believed, will enable the Planning Commission and its technical staff free to devote more time to long-range planning.

Children's Plays To Be Presented At Acalanes High

The East Bay Children's Theater, which each year presents the finest in juvenile dramatic entertainment, has planned four shows at Acalanes High School.

Season tickets for this series of plays will be sold in many elementary schools in this area next month, and individual tickets will be available at each performance.

Currently the group is at work in the preparation for the first play, "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp." The East Bay Children's Theater, Inc., has presented outstanding plays for youngsters for 17 years. The organization is operated on a non-profit basis.

mother with the household — again sadly for them. On top of this is the local system's excellent safety record. On heavily-trafficked roadways, the youngsters get the added precaution of being helped across the streets by the drivers. But the drivers are not without the human touch. If Junior happens to oversleep a few minutes, he still has time to make his bus — that is, if he doesn't sleep too long. But the drivers do wait. Pictured on the left are students loading up

Statements by Three Winning Board Candidates

Here are statements by the victorious candidates in last Monday's election of three directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

FRANK W. SALFINGER—"I want to thank the public sincerely for its support on a public issue that meant so much to its rights. The public stood up and expressed itself in its vote—its franchise right. I will do my very best to deserve the people's vote of confidence."

ERNEST SPIEGEL—"Naturally, I am pleased with the results of the Sanitary District election. The overwhelming vote of confidence given to the three winning candidates is flattering, to say the least."

"This personal satisfaction, however, is far overshadowed by a matter of greater public significance. The tremendous vote cast, in what is ordinarily considered an unimportant local election, indicates an awareness on the part of the electorate. The people of this district are to be congratulated, not because of the choice of candidates, but on the fact that they have indicated a determination to exercise their franchise. Of such stuff is democracy made."

"As I stated prior to the election, the issue was not confined to a single ordinance; the issue was whether or not the electorate was entitled to a voice in the district affairs. By their action last Monday, the people have made clear their determination to hold and cherish that right. It will be a continuing challenge to serve such an electorate."

"It would be remiss to conclude this statement without offering thanks and congratulations to those individuals who were responsible for the aforementioned result. Of course, I refer to those private citizens who worked so valiantly to bring these matters to the attention of the public. I also include the Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda Sums for the public service rendered in this regard. I take this opportunity to thank one and all for such activity."

IRVING C. ROEMER—"The outcome of this election has been most heartening and should inspire the citizens of this community. It has demonstrated the power of the public to demand and obtain good government wherever its absence is discovered."

"I believe that those who supported me in this election are constituents of a principle rather than of a man or group. My term of office is dedicated to that principle."

Scout Campaign Opens This Weekend; 1800 Youngsters Swing Into Action

Using the Meridian District — Diablo Area Scout finance campaign as a "trial run" for their project in the "Get Out the Vote" effort all over the United States, local Boy Scouts are this week-end delivering campaign folders to every home in the communities of Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville, Pleasant Hill, and Ygnacio Valley.

Members of the Meridian District commissioner staff, under the direction of Raymond Van Tassel, Danville, are supervising the distribution of 20,000 folders by approximately 1800 Boy Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers.

THIS SAME organization will be used to place Liberty Bell doorknob hangers on November 1, as a reminder to vote in the presidential election. This nationwide project, in cooperation with the Freedom's Foundation, will be remembered by each Boy Scout who participates through a "George Washington Medal" pocket piece, given by the Foundation in commemoration of the event.

"Give Home — Give from the Heart" is the theme of the campaign folder being distributed. Because there is no community chest or united fund organization in the Diablo area, Scout officials are urging full support of the joint Boy Scout-Girl Scout drive. They point out that this is the annual opportunity residents of the area have to support the two movements, and that no financial support will be forthcoming from any other campaign.

Enrollment Up at Two High Schools

Keeping well in line with enrollment anticipations of the Board of Trustees of the Acalanes School District, enrollment in the district's two high schools, Acalanes and Las Lomas, has risen to 1400 students for the 1952-53 school year.

Next year school officials anticipate a jump to 1650 students, increasing to 2756 students by 1956, and 4800 by 1960, four times the 1951-52 school year enrollment. Acalanes enrollment is expected to level at around 1070 students and Las Lomas at 330 during the 1952-53 school year, school officials estimate.

Walnut Harvesting Work Set to Open

Farm jobs for men and women are now opening up in walnut harvesting in the Walnut Creek-Concord area, according to W. W. Allan, farm labor officer for the State Department of Employment.

Harvest workers should register for jobs at one of these offices: the mobile office in a trailer on East Street and Cole Avenue in Walnut Creek; the Centerville Farm Labor Office on Highway 17 south of Hayward, and the west Oakland information and recruiting booth at the intersection of west seventh street and Market Street in Oakland.

Growers have been asked to notify the Walnut Creek office as to expected labor needs in advance.

Music Teachers' Meeting Held

The Contra Costa Branch of the Music Teachers' Association held a potluck supper Monday at the home of Mrs. Myra Tagg of North Main Street in Walnut Creek.

Future meetings will be held on the third Tuesday of each month. All members have been urged to bring guests.

Next gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Peg Winters of 10 Bonita Lane, Orinda.

G.O.P. Fund Raising Dinner Tuesday Night

"Crusade for Victory," a fund-raising dinner for the fall Republican campaign, will be given by Contra Costa Republicans at the Diablo Country Club Tuesday night.

Senator William F. Knowland will be the featured speaker during the dinner. He is expected to discuss general trends of the campaigns, already under way, and outline a system for effective participation by individuals in the victory drive.

WILLIAM M. FLEAGER, chairman of the finance committee, has been making plans for this affair. Helping Fleager are William Freeman and Fred Seuberg, Lafayette; Ritchie Smith, Dwight Chapman, Kendrick Morrish, Thomas N. St. Hill and George Hauken, Orinda; and Ardis Myhr, Kensington, Lawrence Davitt, and Harmon Howard, chairman of the county's Republican Central Committee, Walnut Creek.

All proceeds will go towards financing county campaigns of Republican candidates for national and state office, Fleager announced.

According to Fleager, Contra Costa County is one of the state's largest counties in area and therefore more difficult and expensive to cover in conducting the fall campaigns.

Double Sessions Still the Rule in County Schools

Double and triple sessions are still the rule in Contra Costa County's growing schools, a survey conducted at the close of the beginning week of classes disclosed this week.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson said that approximately 12,800 children are on double session because school construction cannot keep up with expanding enrollment.

Attendance increased about 10 per cent between the opening of school in September, 1951, and last week, boosting the county's total public school enrollment to 80,000.

In Contra Costa.

Double session classes are mainly concentrated in Central and Western Contra Costa Areas.

Mt. Diablo Unified, with 4000, has the largest number of children on double session in any single district. Lafayette has reported to three sessions of kindergarten a day, in addition to which more than 600 first and second grade children are on double session.

At Orinda the first three grades are on double session, or a total of 650 children out of the entire enrollment of 1430, and at Danville all but 227 children out of 856 are on double session.

Leighton to Speak At Art Meeting

Thomas C. Leighton, successful portrait painter, will illustrate a lecture for the Diablo Art Association at its meeting Monday at the Equity Hall of the Episcopal Church in Walnut Creek.

The speaker has a rich background of study and travel which began in his native Canada, took him to Europe and later to the United States. He has attended the Ontario College of Art, Toronto; art schools in London and New York, the Evanston Academy of Fine Arts, Chicago. Acting as assistant to John Russell, in his School of Art in Toronto, Leighton also enjoyed two years of private study with the distinguished artist.

In 1939 Leighton held a private show of his paintings for the King and Queen of England in Ontario, Canada. He exhibits now in Canada and New York, Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco.

He was director of Fine Arts Department, Ridley College, at St. Catharines, Ontario; instructed at the Art and Letters Club, Institute of Niagara Falls, Ontario, and, since coming to San Francisco, he resides at the Art League of California.

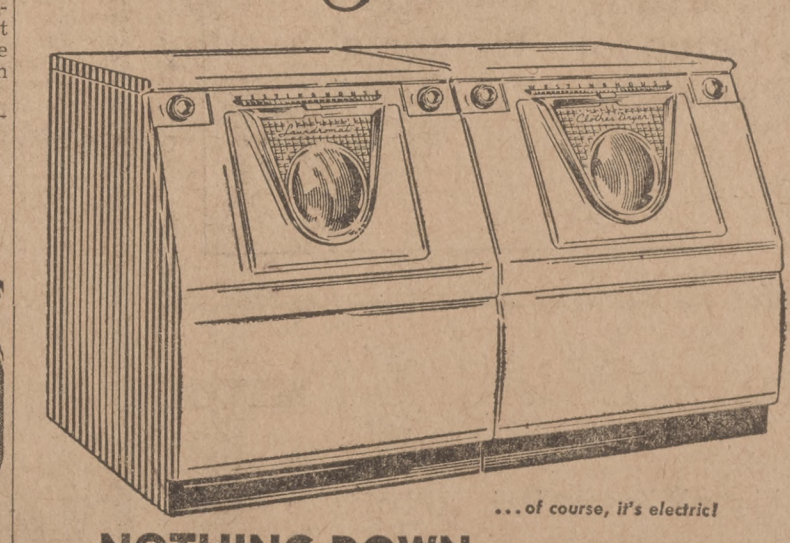

Currently he is on KGO-TV in a series called "Art as You Like It."

MEMBERS of the Diablo Art Association are again asked to bring work to show at the "coffee gallery" which takes place at the close of the meeting.

The public is invited to attend. Anyone interested in becoming a member may contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Leon Dinkin.

Don Eleven Tackles Piedmont Tonight

Mattson's Dons Get First Test

The Acalanes Dons open the 1952 grid season tonight when they tackle Piedmont High's eleven on the local gridiron, with kickoff time slated for 8 o'clock sharp.

The Piedmont Highlanders come with a highly rated club that promises to keep the Dons busy.

Speed and power plus experience give the Highlanders an edge over the Dons, who have but four holdovers from last year's squad.

THE ACALANES eleven has been hard at practice the past three weeks, and while they have smoothed out the big question-mark appears to be what they will do when the chips are down tonight.

The stress has been on offensive play, and defense will be on a trial basis for many players, to see who will get starting spots when league play rolls around early in October.

IN HALFBACK Upshaw and Fullback Russell, Piedmont boasts two of the finest backs in the Bay Area.

The Dons appear to be a team that can develop into a top eleven with the experience of early games, and could be a comer by mid-season.

Bart Ferro at quarter, Ray Williamson at full, and Roger Owen and Jim Burns round out the starting backfield.

Don Band Plays For Grid Queens

Smart and spanking in their blue and silver grey uniforms, the Acalanes Don band played must music to the arriving contingent at Oakland airport of colleg campus queens for the annual Berkeley Football Festival.

Led by Director Richard Hansen, the Don band serenaded the college coeds in the first official public performance of the Acalanes group for the 1952-53 school year.

The Don band will be on hand at the Piedmont-Acalanes game tonight on the Acalanes field.

Weather Aids Coaches in Conditioning Football Players for Season's Action

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE WARM WEATHER of the past week has been a boon in many ways to football coaches.

Much of the early season drills are devoted to conditioning work, with an effort to combine conditioning drills and fundamentals as much as possible.

Warm weather is conducive to good conditioning, as muscles get a god workout in a relatively short period of time.

It aids the coach in more ways than just conditioning the players, as it enables him to observe reaction time of players under stress and their attitude when the going gets a bit tough.

Football is a game that requires skill and fortitude. Many players look fine when all is well and serene but lack the ability to drive themselves when the chips are down.

It is always interesting to see the percentage who drop from a squad in the early days of practice.

There have been some this year, but relatively few. Four out of 107 have left for one reason or another, which is quite small. In most cases it has been because the boy found out that he didn't like football.

Judson to Attend Collier Meetings

Attorney Joseph L. Judson of Pittsburg, chairman of the highway committee of the Contra Costa County Development Association, will attend meetings called by the citizens' advisory group to the Collier Legislative Highway Committee which will be held in San Francisco September 29 and 30.

The advisory group has two main points on its program — determination of deficiencies and how to finance any state program that may be adopted.

According to Judson, Contra Costa County's approval of a $10,250,000 county highways bond issue has generated interest throughout the state, and officials of several counties as well as state officers have asked to be briefed upon the county campaign.

"Contra Costa's action has brought comment from Senator Collier at several meetings," Judson said. "I have had requests for full information upon the Contra Costa program and I know that several county officials have also been queried. It has developed tremendous interest

Brother Jerome St. Mary's Dean

Brother Jerome, who graduated from St. Mary's in 1928, will remain as head of the school of Economics and Business Administration, a position he has filled since 1938.

Brother Cassian has been given a six-month sick leave-of-absence to convalesce at Maryknoll Sanitarium in Monrovia.

Returning to the college this fall after an absence of nearly two years are Father George E. Moss, and Brother Austin, formerly St. Mary's president.

Other new faculty additions include Brother Lawrence, F.S.C., Brother Peter, F.S.C., Brother C. Ralph, F.S.C., and Dr. Ronald P. McArthur.

Barbara Stark in S. F. Celebration

Barbara Stark, Olympic swim star and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Stark of 555 Manzanita Drive, Orinda, along with 46 other California athletes who participated in the Helsinki games, was honored in a gigantic celebration in San Francisco Monday.

Barbara with the rest of the athletes, were driven through the streets of San Francisco with her name emblazoned in big letters on the side of the car she was in and with the same dress uniform she wore at the Olympic Games.

AN ESTIMATED crowd of nearly 150,000 cheered greetings.

Following the parade, a welcome home luncheon at the Fairmount Hotel was held.

No Heels — Lots Of Socks — at Student Dance

Acalanes Dons put aside their books and assignments for the first week of school last Friday at their initial dance of the 1952-53 school year, a "Sock" get-acquainted dance.

Operating on the motto, "No Heels Allowed," Acalanes students left their shoes at the door. The school gym was festively decorated with bright plums of new and vintage footwear.

Despite the record crowd Student Body President Ned Davis quotes the affair as the "most noiseless" dance held on the campus yet.

Headling arrangements for the no shoe shuffle was Student Social Secretary Carolyn Goforth.

Earlier in the week "Hello" cards were distributed among the students to encourage a rapid friendship drive between old and new students.

Spotlighting the Strip...

By KITTY COLE

LUSIANI'S — SEPTEMBER 26th. That's the new name, and opening date, for the old ACAPULCO, and at long last I can break the story that I have been promising you for some months. The LUSIANI family of Oakland, have joined forces with the AL MORTARAS, owners of the building, in a cooperative deal. The spot is being entirely redecorated, all the bamboo and straw booths, which detracted from the spaciousness of the room, are out. The new decor will be most attractive, much like the old ALSAM, and wait 'till you see the latest thing in bandstands, candy-striped, no less. Italian food will be featured, and at moderate prices, and along with the family trade, large parties can be accommodated.

On the bandstand, the DICK LANE (nee LUSIANI) QUARTET will play for dancing. DICK played at the now defunct Acapulco, as well as most of the better clubs in this area, and has just completed an engagement at LENA'S in SANTA ROSA. His is a very versatile and entertaining group.

Already, many reservations for large parties, (one for seven hundred) have been taken, so the LUSIANI-MORTARA combine is off to a flying start. Good luck!!!

RICK'S at the Monument specializes in family dinners, or come in and order a bagful of their delicious hamburgers, and take them home for a midnight snack... DANNY VAN ALLEN received a certificate of appreciation from the March of Dimes, for his work in it's behalf... JIMMY RODGER'S TRIO, currently at the COLONY CLUB in Pittsburg, has added a fine young drummer, by name BOB KREBS. From San Francisco, he has played in all of the prominent night spots there, most recently at the SAY WIEN on Bush Street.

For the first time, your's truly must hang her head in shame. I printed what I thought was an authentic story about the death of MRS. BRUCE TOWERS, and the source of my information, was, I thought, a thoroughly reliable one. However, MRS. TOWERS is very much alive, although in the East Oakland Hospital with a broken leg and other painful injuries, but will make a complete recovery. I offer my apologies to the friends and families of the TOWERS, for not checking on the story personally, but am only too glad to report that all is well.

Deer Opener Tomorrow—Here are Prospects

"Fair to good" is the forecast for hunters who will open the Sierra and northwestern deer season tomorrow, according to area reports from more than 40 State Department of Fish and Game wardens.

Shooting hours are from a half-hour before sunrise to a half-hour after sunset and limits are two bucks in the northwestern area and one buck in the Sierra zone.

WARDEN'S PRE-SEASON reports range from "excellent" prospects in Kern County to "poor" in Lassen-Modoc. Wardens' predictions, county-by-county:

Amador, good. Butte, little posted land. Calaveras, best hunting may be above 6,500 feet. Del Norte, deer in average numbers and good condition. El Dorado, poor to fair throughout the Divide. Fresno, normal numbers of bucks; best should be in the National Forest on either side of the Kings River.

Humboldt, generally good, small inter die-off. East Imperial, deer fat — but few. Eastern Tulare-South Inyo, deer in good condition. Kern, many bucks in excellent shape in Kern River herd; desert herds generally depleted. Tulare-Kings, very few deer seen in Big Meadows area. Lassen, considerably fewer deer seen this year, in desert area.

MADERA, should be good to excellent in eastern half. Mariposa, prospects only fair. Modoc, prospects appear poorest in years. Mono, looks good in Bridgeport and Cole-ville areas in the high country. Nevada, fewer deer this year. Placer, fair prospects, but bucks well scattered. Plumas, slightly below average prospects.

Riverside, good prospects near Mt. Center. Garner Valley area east of Highway 74 and Hurley Flats area. San Bernardino, very few deer seen. San Diego, prospects poor.

SHASTA, fair to good opening expected. Sierra, western county fair to poor, except Haskell Peak. Siskiyou, less deer, but in good shape, on valley floor. Tehama, average prospects. Trinity, looks fair. Tulare, few bucks seen. Tuolumne, prospects excellent for the usual spots. Yuba, resident deer in excellent shape.

New Stock Small Sizes of Plywood Simplify Projects of Home Shop

Here's news for you amateur shopsmiths and built-it-at-home craftsmen.

West coast plywood manufacturers have begun volume production of stock small sized plywood in sheets 24x48-inches and smaller.

For the 35-factory western states plywood industry which has built its mass markets on the needs of the commercial builder and industrial user, it is an adventurous departure from past policy.

And for the expanding army of men and women who are re-learning the fun of using their hands in myriad home projects, it means plywood will be easy to buy and easier to use.

Although a commercial builder saves time and money with big sheets, many an amateur craftsman has had to wear out shoe leather looking for one small sized piece of plywood or been stumped for a way to get a big panel home.

NOW, EVEN his wife or daughter may be able to pick up the panels he needs for a weekend project on her daily shopping round.

The new small sizes called Handy Panels are manufactured to meet the same rigid U. S. Commercial

Standard governing the quality of 4x8-foot panels. They are offered in both "one-side" and "two-side" grades of exterior plywood with waterproof glue for outdoor use and in the interior type for inside work.

Coincident with the development of small stock sizes, the industry commissioned Norman Cherner, rising young New York designer, author and teacher at Columbia University, to do a series of easy-to-use plans for home projects. The plans are keyed to modules corresponding with the new small plywood panel sizes. The first of these will be available in the near future.

According to O. Harry Schrader, Jr., managing director of Douglas Fir Plywood Association, it is probably the first time the work of a nationally known designer will be made available to the amateur craftsman.

In many retail lumber yards the panels are sold in special racks with the per panel price marked on each piece.

For the amateur craftsman this all means just one thing—getting plywood for that cupboard door or lawn table should now be as easy as buying a can of beans.

Split Redwood Typifies Living In the Country

By PHIL DOOLEY

Each one of us tries to inject something of his own personality into his home. This, of course, is conditioned by the location of said home.

Here "over the hill" each of us tries to relax in a rusticated atmosphere and our personalities and homes reflect this self-imposed rejection of everything urban.

ENTER THE "split personality." Split redwood typifies country living. It is a return to nature, to the out of doors, to softness of line and continued good looks with minimum maintenance. So you see it in fences, shakes for roof and siding, and split battens.

You see it in redwood rounds as paths, steps and patio. They carry it into the house as ceiling beams, as hewn mantle pieces, planter box edging and even into the furniture itself.

Split redwood is not only ornamental but highly practical being perfect vertical grain lumber. Rustic, to start with, it fails to show shrinkage, warping or checking.

SPEAKING FRANKLY, it easily adapts itself to the "backyard architect" by absorbing minor deficiencies within its rustic charm allowing for errors in its own rejection of tailored, dimensional urban living.

This is why you see so much split redwood as fences; board, stake and alternating panels, vertical and horizontal; rail fences stacked and mortised; high fences, low fences; light and heavy weight. Each is an adaptation to the owner's personality—a "split personality."

LOOSE BELT

On some types of motors, where the water pump and fan are belt driven, a loss of cooling efficiency may be due to the belt becoming loose and slipping on the pulleys.

There's a Place for Peonies in Every Garden; September Is Planting Time

By BERT WRIGHT

THERE IS A PLACE in every home garden for the peony, that popular perennial. In spite of the fact that the peony shoots off its display of blooms in a relatively short number of weeks, its perfection of dark green and arching foliage makes it a valuable plant for planting in the middle range of perennial borders or in beds by themselves.

Among garden perennials, peonies rank high, with giant blooms rivaling the largest chrysanthemums in size and cutting quality.

The herbaceous type of peonies, that die down in the autumn, are the sort most commonly grown. They offer a wide range of colors, from dazzling white to deep maroon, with various types of blooms. Peonies make an excellent companion flower with tall-bearded iris.

ROOTS MAY BE PLANTED from the first of September until hard frost. Prepare the ground one or two weeks ahead of planting by spading deep (12 to 14 inches). Incorporate complete plant food throughout this depth at the rate of one pound (one pint) per 25 square feet of area, or one tablespoonful under each plant.

Select root divisions with at least three eyes and set so that the buds are two or three inches below the surface of the soil, and three to four feet apart.

Planting can either be in full sun or in partial shade, but not too close to trees or shrubs unless both peonies and trees are fed liberally. Mulching the first winter is advisable.

SPRING CARE: Start cultivation early. Feed complete plant food soon after growth starts. Use one rounded tablespoonful around each plant and cultivate it into the soil around the plant.

This feeding is important since the peony plant makes a very rapid early growth and needs this feeding may be for 10 years or more. Three-year-old plants can be divided for securing roots to increase stock. In digging, loosen the soil 18 to 20 inches around the plant and at least 12 inches deep. Lift the clump carefully. Let the root clump dry in the sun and then shake off the soil, wash the roots free of dirt and cut stems to two inches.

Start working the roots until they show where they easily separate, then cut at these points with a knife. Leave at least three eyes per division.

PREVENTS MANY STRAINS

There is a degree of truth, perhaps, in the charge that car makers are responsible for the situation that makes it necessary to slam the automobile door in order to close it, points out the National Automobile Club. Car owners, however, are not entirely innocent, and a little oil or graphite applied to door locks and strikers will demonstrate this to the satisfaction of the most skeptical.

Give to Scouts Here! No Aid from Crusade

With reversal of instructions to United Crusade workers in the East Bay by General Manager Ralph T. Shaw, a lot of confusion has been banished for residents of this area who work in the East Bay.

They now know definitely that NO Central Contra Costa County agencies, including the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, will share in contributions they make to United Crusade at their place of employment. And they know that they will be solicited at home in the $39,000 Joint Girl Scout-Boy Scout Fund Drive for the Diablo Area which gets under way next Friday, September 26.

Shaw says there's no prearranged "earmarking" of funds as was announced previously.

All of which points up what the SUN said editorially last week: that the United Crusade is a worthy cause, for the East Bay and San Francisco only.

For the people who live HERE and work there, the primary concern is with the home agencies and they should give at home.

In this way, 100 per cent of your contribution to the Scout Drive will go to the local scout organizations. Similarly, donations to the current fund drive of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will be used directly for that institution. Ditto for the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the Red Cross, which has its annual finance drive in March.

So we repeat — give at home.

If you do give to United Crusade at work, give only as much as will leave you free to donate generously and fully to the Girl Scout-Boy Scout drive her and the other local campaigns.

Jewish Sunday School Classes Ready To Start

Newcomers who wish to enroll their children can contact Mrs. Sam Wiseman, membership chairman, Walnut Creek 4233, or Mrs. Arthur Weisberg, Lafayette 4988.

A general Sunday School Committee meeting will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Manders, 1320 Alma Street, Walnut Creek. All parents are invited.

Return Engagement For 'Moon Is Blue'

Randolph Hale, managing-director, United Nations (formerly Alcazar) Theater in San Francisco, announces that due to popular demand he has arranged to bring back the comedy hit, "The Moon Is Blue," with the same all-star cast, including David Niven, Diana Lynn and Scott Brady, for a limited engagement of two weeks only, beginning Monday evening, September 22.

Taxpayers Check On County Setup

The Contra Costa County Taxpayer's Association announced this week that its staff is engaged in checking various aspects of the county's government, with the objective of either improving the way the offices operate or of eliminating unnecessary expenditures.

Such areas as use of mechanical office devices, handling of records, forms and procedures and duplication of work between various offices are being investigated.

Harry L. Morrison Jr., executive director, declared that a series of recommendations are coming out of the study which should contribute to the efforts being made by county officials to do a better job. "The rapid expansion of the county's job requires constant adjustment and simplification in methods of government," he added.

So far, improvements have been suggested regarding county printing and form design in general, as well as duplication of indexes and accounting, greater use of machines in recording fees, microfilming and elimination of old records, and purchasing procedures.

Christian Science Sermon - 'Matter'

With "Matter" for its subject, the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on Sunday will include these verses from Matthew:

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal" (6:19, 20).

From the correlative citations in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, these passages will be read: "It is impossible to work from two standpoints. . . Starting from a higher standpoint, one rises spontaneously, even as light emits light without effort; for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (pp. 182, 262).

Camp Cooke Jobs

An urgent need for plumbers and for kitchen equipment repairers now exists at Camp Cooke, California.

Group Organized For Ike, Nixon

The "Citizens for Eisenhower-Nixon" of Contra Costa County, formerly known as the "Eisenhower Volunteers," met last week at the home of Paul V. Ammen in Orinda to organize for the presidential campaign. Supporters of the "Ike-Nixon" ticket from the central and eastern portions of the county were represented.

Paul Ammen, who was largely responsible for organizing the group and leading its pre-convention activities, resigned and Joseph R. Creighton, also of Orinda, was chosen as his successor.

Gennaro Filice, Jr. of Richmond will serve as vice-chairman in charge of the 11th Assembly District, in place of Charles McCoy, who has moved to Lafayette.

Creighton will work in close association with William Freeman of Lafayette, Eisenhower-Nixon campaign committee chairman for Contra Costa County.

The change in name, according to Ammen, was made in order that the Northern California groups would bear the same name as other volunteer groups throughout the nation. The Eisenhower Volunteers, as the Contra Costa County club was formerly known, distributed information about Eisenhower prior to the Republican Chicago Convention and obtained over 8000 signatures to "Ike" petitions.

Distribution of "Ike-Nixon" windshield stickers and buttons will start in the near future. Meanwhile, these supplies are available at the Lafayette Headquarters in the Garretts Building, according to Creighton.

G. O. P. Women Plan Meeting

The Orinda Women's Republican Club will sponsor an Eisenhower rally at Acalanes High School on Tuesday, September 30, starting at 6:30 p. m. Voters throughout this area, regardless of party affiliation, are invited.

Mildred Younger of Los Angeles will be the main speaker. The meeting will also be highlighted by an old-fashioned box supper.

'Population Growth - Argument for No. 24'

Proponents of Proposition 24, the $185,000,000 school construction measure, point to California population estimates recently released by the State Department of Finance as more proof than ever of the urgency of the school building crisis.

Donald Kirby, executive committee chairman of the Committee to Relieve Overcrowded Classrooms, said:

"Proposition 24 is sealed to house 440,000 school children — nearly half a million — which a Federal survey indicated are overcrowded or are in out-of-date facilities right now. On top of that, the State Department of Finance tells us to expect a 273,000 gain in school enrollment in the next two years."

Baldwin Endorsed By Lt. Governor

John F. Baldwin, Martinez attorney and candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, has received the endorsement of Lieut. Governor Goodwin Knight.

Knight's endorsement was characterized by Lindsey Spight, general chairman of the Baldwin campaign "as recognition from a man of substance and stature who has every opportunity to assay John Baldwin's ability to effectively represent Contra Costa and Solano Counties."

The lieutenant governor sent this message to Baldwin headquarters: "I commend to the voters of Contra Costa and Solano Counties, comprising the Sixth Congressional District, John F. Baldwin, Republican nominee for the United States Congress."

"Mr. Baldwin proved by his vigorous and intelligent primary campaign, which resulted in his attaining the largest total vote of any of the six candidates, that he has the qualities of energy and ability which will enable him to serve the citizens of the Sixth District with credit and distinction."

Vets for Ike Group Formed

A Veterans for Eisenhower group has been started in this area as a nucleus of an organization planned for the entire county.

Mel Nielsen of Lafayette is chairman. Others in the group are Ned de Lavaga of Orinda, Chester Howard, Claire Hamilton and Harry Bramble of Lafayette, Willard Welch of Walnut Creek, B. P. Beauchamp of Pleasant Hill and James P. Root of Danville.

All veterans, regardless of party affiliation, who are for Dwight Eisenhower and willing to work for his election as President are asked to phone Nielsen and join the group. A suitable headquarters will be announced later.

Baldwin Headquarters To Open on October 1

Committees directing campaign work for John F. Baldwin, Martinez attorney "grass roots" candidate for congressman from the new Sixth District, will open headquarters October 1 in Richmond, Vallejo and Martinez. It is announced by Lindsey Spight of Orinda, general chairman of the Baldwin campaign.

The Martinez office will be at 630 Court Street and will coordinate the activities of workers in central and eastern Contra Costa.

First Local Area Painting Sold At 4th Art Fair

In addition to its other accomplishments, the Fourth Annual Art Fair chalked up a significant "first"—the first sale of a painting by a local area artist in the four years of shows from work on display at an Outdoor Art Shows exhibit.

An oil painting by Hiram Muelendyke of Walnut Creek, a director of Outdoor Art Shows, Inc., and president of the Diablo Art Association, was sold to a visitor to the fair. The painting, "Martinez Waterfront," was a representational picture.

Another oil painting by Muelendyke, done on an afternoon in the Art-in-Action demonstration, was sold that night at the auction—to the same woman who purchased "Martinez Waterfront." The auctioned picture was of the Howard grounds.

Citizens Committee For No. 3 Is Formed

A Contra Costa County Citizens Committee for YES on Proposition No. 3 was announced this week with Dr. C. L. Abbott of Richmond as chairman. Mrs. Claire M. Schmidt, Richmond civic leader, and Dr. Walter L. Taylor, leading Martinez surgeon, are the vice-chairmen.

The committee will augment the campaign of California for Justice in Education, which is seeking to affirm action of the California Legislature and Governor Earl Warren in exempting non-profit private schools of the elementary and high school grades from taxation.

The organization has opened county headquarters at 308 13th St., Richmond, with James F. Lowery, former war correspondent and public relations counselor, in charge. He will be assisted by Robert S. Elliott of Richmond.

Developer Group Studies Council Recreation Plans

The Contra Costa County Development Association's Recreation Committee, headed by George Bowersox of Concord, is studying the plans and program of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council after hearing Council Chairman Alvin Burton of Walnut Creek detail the council's hopes and survey plans.

Burton, who appeared before the directors of the association at their monthly meeting with John Mathews, said that the Board of Supervisors has made an appropriation of $8500 for a survey and master plan of parks and he estimated it would be a year before it is completed.

IN THE MEANTIME, he said, the council is conducting a county-wide educational speaking program to inform people of the necessity of setting aside park lands now before desirable acreage is "swallowed up by the sprawling city. Los Angeles fashion, that is developing in Contra Costa."

Burton emphasized that the council's present views of its sphere cover large or recreational parks, but that there may be opportunity for a tie-up that would encompass district programs.

THE COUNCIL chairman sketched the development of Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, Lake Merritt in Oakland and other parks and said that his group has had the benefit of the professional advice of William Penn Mott of Orinda, superintendent of Oakland parks and a nationally-recognized park authority.

"It seems," Burton said, "that the accomplishment of the program may necessitate a bond issue. We must get good park areas before they are gone. The swelling population means that we must act soon."

Everyone knows that there are too many cars on the highways at peak hours. Whenever possible choose the off-hours when traffic is lightest to do your driving.

100 YEARS EXPERIENCE

Bringing light to the streets and highways of the West

1852—Founded as the San Francisco Gas Company, P. G. and E. introduced the first gas lights to Western cities.

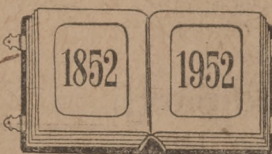

1879—Much brighter than the gas flame was the new electric arc light, like this one atop famed old San Jose tower, 237 feet high.

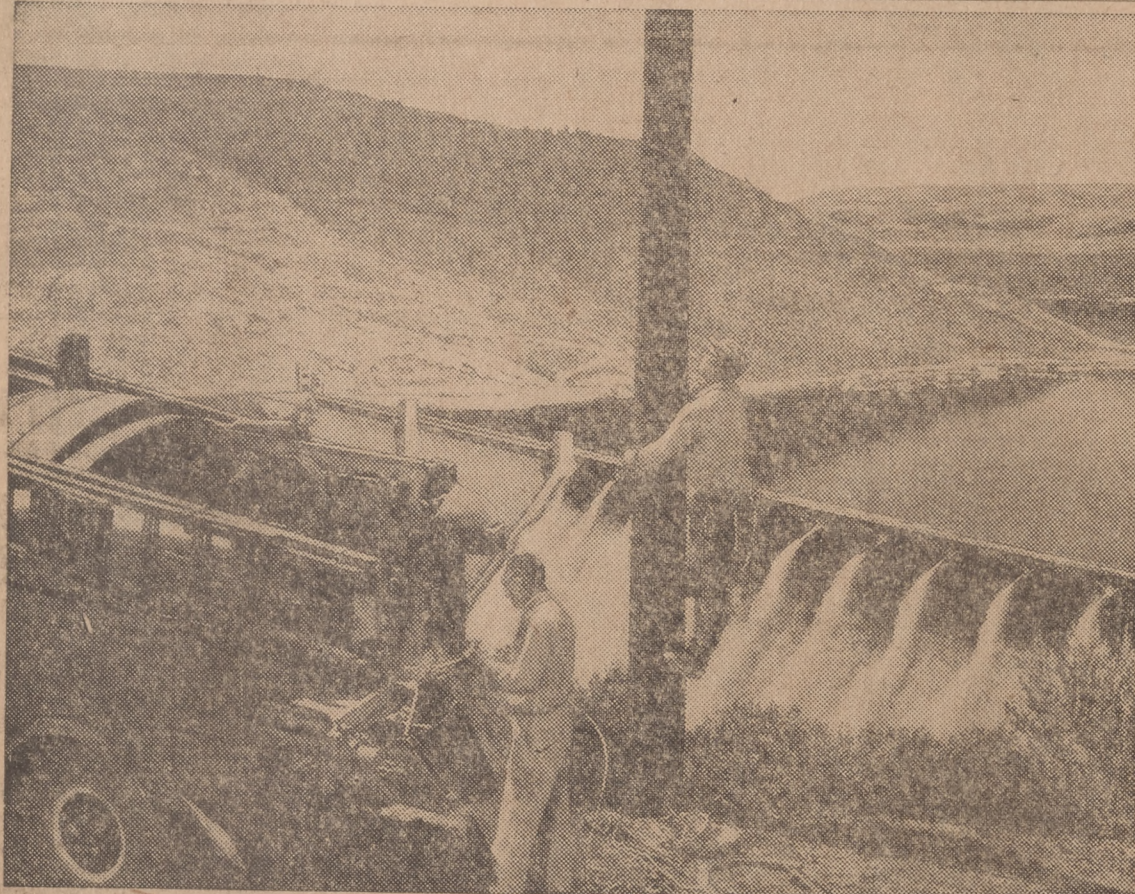

1952—Modern lights cut through fog and darkness to bring greater safety to California thoroughfares.

In our first century, we've seen lights go on all over the West, brightening streets to help the movement of traffic, reduce crime. And better lighting costs so little! Today you pay $2.50, on the average, for the same electricity that would have cost $20 when P. G. and E. service was young. A century of experience has made good gas and electric service cheap throughout Northern and Central California!

Our Centennial Year

P. G. and E. PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

Since 1934, we've been expanding our system to bring telephone service to the Columbia Basin area.

When the Columbia Basin needed telephones

Making a desert blossom meant building a complete, new communications system

Twenty years ago, much of central Washington was sagebrush wasteland. Then came the Columbia Basin project with its plans for a huge dam and thousands of miles of irrigation canals. Right from the beginning, one of the important "tools" needed was telephone service. And we began, even before a yard of earth was moved, to create a new telephone system in the desert. We've invested hundreds of thousands of dollars to build the new facilities in the Columbia Basin...an investment which will mean much to the West and to the nation. For it is helping turn barren land into rich, food-producing farms.

Highway mobile telephones have been helping contractors and engineers build a network of canals over the vast area. In 1934, we put a private line circuit from Coulee Dam to Ephrata. Today the dam itself is webbed with miles and miles of telephone lines...a nerve system over which practically all operations are controlled. And throughout the Basin area we've been building huge amounts of telephone facilities to take care of its amazingly rapid growth. In Ephrata, for instance, three operators handled all calls in 1942. Today, although dial equipment handles local calls, 25 operators are needed. In Moses Lake, there were 66 telephones in 1935. Today there are more than 2000...and the real growth still lies ahead. Eventually, irrigation water will reach more than a million acres. And we'll keep doing our best to see that the people who move there will have telephone service equal to that in other areas we serve here in the West.

Pacific Telephone

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

Throughout the West, the Columbia Basin telephone story has been told in hundreds of rapidly growing communities. And, fast as the West's growth has been, the telephone has grown at an even faster rate, twice as fast in the territory we serve. For at today's prices, the telephone is so economical more people can afford it...so useful, more people want it.
